Passage 1

On Saturdays, most people are busy shopping for their homes. Some of them go to the stores, some go to the supermarkets. But in America, most shoppers enjoy shopping in the shopping malls.

A mall is a group of many shops. There you can buy clothes, furniture, and everything you need. Shopping malls provide parking for your cars. Usually, the mall is under one roof so the shoppers do not get cold or wet from rain, wind, or snow. After shopping, you may get tired. You can walk into the sitting-rooms for a short rest. If you can go into the dining rooms in the malls, you can have a good meal. Now more and more Americans like to go shopping there.

Decide whether the statements are true or false according to the above text. 句子正确请把选项 A 涂黑，句子错误请把选项 B 涂黑。

Passage 4

The keys to reaching or staying at a healthy weight are regular exercise and good eating habits. Some people think exercise and good eating habits need lots of effort(努力) or planning. But that' s not true. In fact, the best way to work them into our lives is by making small changes.

Here' s the information you need to make these healthy habits just as easy. Teens should get 60 minutes or more of physical (体力的) activity a day. As long as you' re getting your body moving, it doesn' t have to mean doing difficult exercises or hitting the gym every day.

On days when you have soccer practice or a PE class, you may have no trouble in exercising for an hour or more. But most of us are busy, and 60minutes a day of activity seems like a lot of time. The good news is that it' s OK to divide it into shorter "exercise breaks" in a day.

Just as you might have a healthy snack to stop yourself getting hungry, exercise snacks can give you enough energy. So get up 15 minutes early and do some morning exercises. Fast walk or jog for 15 minutes at lunch. Do the same thing after school—or walk or bike home. Add to that taking the stairs, gym class, and walking between classes during the day, and you've probably reached your 60 minutes.

76. What does this passage mainly talk about?

- A. How to get good eating habits every day.
- B. How to get enough exercise easily every day.
- C. How to make a good plan for study.

77. How long should teens do exercise every day?

- A. For an hour. B. For 15 minutes. C For half an hour

78. The underlined word "it" in the 3rd paragraph refers to (指的是)

- A. a PE class B. soccer practice C. an hour's exercise

79. Which of the following is TRUE according to the passage?

- A. We should do some difficult exercises every day.
- B. We should eat less and make ourselves hungry every day.
- C. Exercise snacks can provide us with enough energy

80. We can probably find this passage in _____.

- A. a magazine B. a poster C. a story book

第二节 英汉翻译 (共5小题, 每小题2分, 满分10分)

请阅读下列A、B、C、D、E五个段落, 并将各段落中的划线句子翻译成汉语。A

Can you swim? Do you like swimming? Yes? Well, how can you learn to swim? I think the best way is to go into the water and learn. (81) I'm afraid you'll never learn to swim just by reading books about swimming or looking at others swimming. It's the same with the English study. We must practice, practice and practice.

B

When we say that Cambridge is a university town we do not mean that it is a town with university in it. A university town is one where there is no clear separation between the university buildings and the rest of the city. The university is not just one part of the town; it is all over the town. (82) The heart of Cambridge has its shops, restaurants, market places and so on, but most of it is university—college, libraries, clubs and other places for university staff and students.

C

The White House, the official home of the President of the United States, was designed by the architect James Hoban, who is said to have been influenced by the design of a palace in Ireland. The building was begun in 1792 and was first occupied by President and Mrs. John Adams in November 1800. (83) The house received its present name when it was painted white after being damaged by a fire in 1814.

D

U.S. college costs this year increased at the lowest rate in 12 years, according to a report by the College Board. (84) The average cost of a four-year public school education went up only 3.4%, to $3,356 a year, while that of a private school rose 4.6%, to $15,380.

But saving for college is getting easier as more major brokerages offer tax-advantaged college saving plans. This fact proves any high school graduates, if they wish, could attend a college without the fear of being unable to afford it.

E

The most popular type of restaurant serves fast foods such as hamburgers, hot dogs, pizza, fried chicken, tacos, and French fries. Why are fast food restaurants so popular? First, they really are fast. You don't have to wait more than a minute or two for your food. They are also convenient. (85) You may dress casually, and in some places you can even order from your car and drive away with your food without going into the restaurant! Finally, fast food restaurant are inexpensive. You can buy a complete meal in some fast food restaurants for less than two dollars.
